masterfully crafted songs, humorous stories & poetic drama sketched with shades of Appalachia, feisty anthems, tasteful slide & jazzy blues, and rustic folk

Saturday,
February 28th 7:30 - 9:30

"... blends wry and romantic stories with keen tuneful observations in a delicious mix of folk, blues and bluegrass... a man not to be missed!"

~ The National Theatre, Washington DC

Andrew will captivate each of you with his gifts of poetry and storytelling interwoven with his diverse, original songs. As the Boston Globe wrote, "With a voice reminiscent of Don McLean, McKnight traverses from old-time Appalachian tunes to contemporary folk and blues, all backed up by his dead-on guitar playing."

Singer/songwriter and guitarist Andrew McKnight's five CDs and captivating performances showcase his engaging collection of songs and stories celebrating the lives and landscapes of rural American people with warmth and humor. Since permanently leaving his corporate environmental engineering career in 1996, the award-winning folk and Americana artist has traced half a million miles of blue highways and backwater towns, and earned critical acclaim and enthusiastic fan response. His music and messages are always compelling, infused with his literate prose, eye for intriguing detail, and soundscapes that span haunting blues, feisty anthems, rustic folk, and a bit of swing.
