*Sunday
August 23rd
4 - 6 p.m.*

Bill is an audience favorite of the Wildflower and Kerrville folk festivals, and a 20-year volunteer of Uncle Calvin's Coffeehouse where he's appeared on stage more than 20 times! Bill's songs can be summed up as covering a wide base, with much of his writing style influenced by the song writing styles of the likes of Harry Chapin, James Taylor and Dan Fogelberg. His songs are written about real people living in real situations. Many are true stories— always with his unique spin on things. Bill has been a musician all his life (40+ years playing and teaching guitar), and his guitar style is well refined with a bent towards finger picking. His voice makes the listener want to hear more.

Songstress, Punster, Folk Diva — Emilie has been called many things in her 20+ years of performing. Her songs encompass everything from anthems and historical docudramas to ballads of love and loss and (of course) the moon. From the grand stage at the Kerrville Folk Festival to the intimate confines of a house concert, Emilie envelops her audience in a warm musical hug. She has opened for many performers including: The Kingston Trio, Leo Kottke, David Bromberg, Robin and Linda Williams, Nanci Griffith, Lyle Lovett, Steven Fromholz, Shake Russell, Tom Paxton, Odetta, Josh White Jr..

Wayne brings over 30+ years of performing to the stage with a mixed bag of folk, pop, blues, and ragtime songs. Originally from Louisiana where he played in rock bands in the '60s, Wayne has been based in Dallas—playing acoustically in coffeehouses, clubs, colleges, and festivals— since the early '70s. He has opened for performers such as John Sebastian, Odetta, Dave Van Ronk, Carolyn Hester, Bob Gibson, Allen Damron, Shake Russell, Townes Van Zandt, Nanci Griffith, Eric Taylor, Dee Moeller, and BW Stevenson.
