

"The Back Fields is absolutely my favorite new release that I've heard since I can remember. Obviously, the songs are just wonderful as are the harmonies, but there's something more to it, the music just really tells such great stories, conveys such deep emotion, I don't know, it just really touched me like nothing has in a long time."

~ Mark Michaelis – WGDR, Plainfield, VT

"Grimm is another link in the chain of literate singer songwriters that sees a side to the story that we always miss. The songs are little novels that unfold slowly and then knock you off your feet when you're not looking... A real find."

TIM GRIMM & FAMILY BAND

Tim Grimm is a bit of a Renaissance man in the performing arts world. He has, for the past 15 years, blended his love for songwriting, travel, and the storytelling of acting (theatre, film and television). His most recent recording, The Turning Point, produced the #1 song on Folk radio in 2014: King of the Folksingers. It was a particularly gratifying honor, given the song is a tribute to Tim's friend and musical icon Ramblin' Jack Elliott.

Tim grew up in the woods and small town settings of southern Indiana, son of schoolteachers and grandson of farmers. His songs are full of the rural rumblings that have shaped his life. Rich with descriptive details and sung with warmth and intimacy, his songs recognize the inextinguishable national romance with the idea of the family farm and the vanishing landscape of rural America.

After several years in the '90s working in Los Angeles—where he co-starred for two seasons on the NBC drama Reasonable Doubts, worked on Clear and Present Danger with Harrison Ford, and appeared in several films and TV projects—Tim returned home to Indiana, a conscious choice to live a life of significance rather than one of 'success'. He now lives with his wife on eighty acres close to where he grew up. What a joy to bring Tim back to our venue with his entire family accompanying him! [See <http://www.timgrimm.com/> for more on Tim.]
